Rabbi Klatzker will be leaving the congregation and Peabody in late June to become the Rabbi at Temple Beth Shalom in Long Beach, California.

We will remember fondly our associations with Rabbi David and Randy. He and Randy have made a significant imprint on our Jewish community and the organizations in the city of Peabody. Over the past thirteen years, he has supported the congregation in many ways. We are grateful for that experience . Our community has been fortunate to have shared his wisdom, caring & friendship. On behalf on the officers, board, and the members of the congregation; we wish Rabbi David and Randy much success in their new venture.

We shall not say "good bye" rather L'hitraot, till we see each other again.

These times at Temple Ner Tamid are bittersweet. While searching for a new Rabbi and looking towards the future is exciting. it's sad for us to say goodbye to Rabbi Klatzker after his 13 years of service to Temple Ner Tamid. The Rabbi has worked very hard over these years as an advocate for TNT and he and Randy have become a part of our community. I personally have all the respect in the world for Rabbi Klatzker and wish him well as he moves on to the next stage in his life.

Scott Feinstein, TNT President

I have had the remarkable honor of sharing the bimah with Rabbi Klatzker over the last two years. His unparalleled wisdom, patient and generous n'shamah, and ability to move a congregation with his words will always be cherished in the permanent legacy of Temple Ner Tamid. Randy's warmth and unshakable commitment to TNT should never be understated. I wish them ample success and nachas in their journey westward.

With great appreciation,
Cantor Steve Abramowitz

Sisterhood has been fortunate for the hard work, dedication and support of Rabbi Klatzker and Randy. I'm sure that the Sisterhood at their new Temple will soon learn that Randy is more than an ex-officio board member. We were grateful to have her as a very active member and wish them well in their new endeavor. On behalf of myself, my family and Sisterhood,

B'shalom, Harriet Feinstein, Sisterhood President

I wish to thank Rabbi David and Randy for all their hard work over the years at Temple Ner Tamid. On behalf of the officers, board, and membership, of the Men's Club, we wish them peace and contentment as they open a new chapter in their lives at Temple Beth Shalom in Long Beach, CA

Todd Levine, Mens Club President

I have had the honor and pleasure to work side by side with Rabbi Klatzker over these past 19 months as TNT's Synagogue Administrator. He has been a "mensch" during this transition time as well as I friend. I will miss our morning coffee and humorous banter. I wish him and Randy the best of luck on their new journey!

Much love and appreciation,
Beth K. Hoffman
Synagogue Administrator

From: Rabbi David Klatzker

SHALOM

There is a Jewish saying: kol hathalot kashot, all beginnings are difficult. So are all endings.

I have many outstanding memories of my thirteen years at TNT: sharing special moments in your lives, both happy and sad; welcoming guests to the synagogue, including many Christian visitors and a number of scholars and artists; feeling uplifted by your participation in our Shabbat and holiday services; enjoying the stimulation of your questions at our family and adult education programs.

I am not the same rabbi that I was when I first came to you. I have learned many things about congregational life, and will take those lessons with me as I move to a new community. There are no perfect rabbis or perfect congregants. The rabbi-congregant relationship is seldom what either partner would hope or expect, but it can be sometimes be marvelous.

At this moment of transition, I am reminded of a passage in the Talmud which describes the greetings exchanged by the watchmen in the Temple as they changed shifts. As the guards passed by each other, they would say, "We wish you love, we wish you brotherhood, we wish you peace, we wish you friendship." As my family and I leave TNT, we wish for you the things that so many of you have given us—love, brotherhood, peace and friendship.

Please stay in touch! Our new address is Temple Beth Shalom, 3635 Elm Avenue, Long Beach, CA 90807.

A Shavuot Renaissance

I have always wondered why Shavuot seems to get short shrift in Jewish experience, compared with the other two r'galim, Sukkot and Pesach. Of course, Shavuot in America lasts a scant two days, while Sukkot and Pesach invite us to celebrate for eight. In addition, Shavuot has no discernible, tangible image to compare with the seder, specific foods and rich symbolism of Pesach, and the creative huts, lulav shaking/beating and etrog holding/smelling during Sukkot. In fact, Sukkot has earned the name "HeChag" (THE holiday), and Pesach cannot be forgotten as "Z'man Cheiruteinu" (the time we celebrate our freedom).

Finally, while Sukkot and Pesach fall squarely within the religious school year, Shavuot usually occurs beyond the religious school schedule. I recently asked a group of 5th graders (not at TNT) to tell me about Shavuot, and they had a very difficult time putting the holiday concept into words.

With this article as my manifesto, I aim to rescue Shavuot from the clutches of semi-obscurity, and create a Shavuot renaissance at Temple Ner Tamid. Where should I start? First of all, I present Shavuot's moniker, "Zman Matan Torateinu" (time that G-d gave us our Torah). The word matan comes from the root nun, taf, nun-- to give. But I might offer this nominal phrase as Z'man Matanah Torateinu (time of the GIFT of Torah). While on Simchat Torah we celebrate renewing the cycle of Torah reading, only on Shavuot do we commemorate G-d giving Moses the Torah (literally, the teaching) on Mount Sinai. Powerful stuff!

Second, while Shavuot does not provide the food specificity of Pesach, we do celebrate the holiday with traditional dairy foods. If you have never enjoyed a delectable blueberry blintz, my heart--and palate--reach out to you. (Remind me to bring my Dairy Ease pills!)

If you seek a joyous musical experience, look no further than Shavuot. We stand and sing the exulting Hallel service, hear the traditional akdamut melody in the Kiddush, and hear the ancient trope illuminating the story of Ruth, the first convert to Judaism (and great-grandmother of King David!). For those wishing to remember their loved ones, we also offer an evening Yizkor service.

Of course, many identify Shavuot with graduation and/or confirmation. I personally look forward to honoring our community's high school graduates, and learning of the generous scholarship awardees. Mazal tov to our budding collegians!

Finally, in the spirit of Torah, I would like to issue an invitation. I would like to devote Wednesday evenings in the late spring/early summer to teaching an adult class in Torah OR Haftarah trope. In this class, we will not only learn melodies for the trope, but gain a better understanding of the derivation of trope, why we read trope and how trope is used and organized. I will provide CD and/or .WAV recordings, and a syllabus. What I will need from all interested students is to "vote" for either Torah or Haftarah. Please email me at bramersja@yahoo.com to submit your votes, and I look forward to tabulating the results.

Together, we can bring "Z'man Matan Torateinu" to the forefront of ritual life at Temple Ner Tamid.

President, Scott Feinstein

Shalom!

Well I'm nearing the end of my first year as President of Temple Ner Tamid. To say that it's been challenging would be a huge understatement. I certainly could not have done it alone, and appreciate all the help and support I've received from the Executive Board, Board of Trustees, committees, and staff. I volunteer my time for this pursuit because I care very deeply about Temple Ner Tamid. I've agreed to stay on as President for another year (assuming I'm elected at the general meeting, which as of this writing has not yet taken place) and do so with great pride and hope for our future. I welcome everyone to attend the combined installation of officers for the Temple, Sisterhood, and Men's Club on Friday, June 3 at 8:00pm.

Regarding our search for a new Rabbi, as of this writing we are continuing to bring in candidates to visit with us. I am still optimistic in that we'll find a candidate that's a good match for us and who also feels that we're a good match for him/her. Having said that, please know that plans are underway just in case we're not successful in our search. I will continue to be open and honest with you, the congregation, as the search committee and I are simply your representatives. The committee has worked and continues to work extremely hard at this vital task entrusted to it.

I would like to thank Eric Richman, Alyse Barbash, Todd Levine, and the small group of people who stepped up to help them for putting together our spring fundraiser to honor Mayor Bonfanti. As I write this the dinner hasn't yet taken place, but I'm sure it will be a wonderful event. I've seen the proof of the tribute book, and it looks great. The only problem is that it's really too thin. I appreciate all of the support from people who placed ads in the book; I just wish there were more of them. While the final numbers are not yet in, it does look like we're going to come in short of our goals. We'll have to digest that information and determine how it impacts the remainder of our fiscal year. In the mean time, I would encourage everyone first and foremost to ensure that your dues are paid in full for the 2010-2011 year. Also, while the spring fundraiser may have come and gone, there are always opportunities to give to the Temple. One ongoing fundraiser that's trickled off from its initial launch is the Ponn Family Walkway. Why not purchase a brick, even if you've already done so? There are plenty of opportunities to sponsor an oneg.

Finally, you can always make a general donation to the Temple in honor of some event or milestone, or just because.

Again, I'm very optimistic about the future of our Temple, but it's going to take a lot of work. That work cannot be done by the same group of people year after year. We need more people to simply join committees and help, but we also need more people who are willing to step into leadership positions such as committee chairs, Board positions, or Officers. You'll be hearing more about this in the coming months. I want to give everyone – all congregants – a chance to bring their unique strengths to Temple Ner Tamid. I've said this before and I'll say it again – Judaism is all about community. Only as a community working together can we thrive. I have faith in our community to move us forward, and I hope you have faith in me to lead us along that path.

B'Shalom,
Scott Feinstein

Men's Club, Todd Levine

Spring has finally sprung and that means it is time for changes in our Men's Club. I would like to thank the Executive Board and Board of Directors for their help and support this year. I would also like to thank the temple members who throughout the year supported all our events. Special congratulations to Ed Gustat who was honored as our man of the year. Congratulations to the winners of the limited raffles and to our future leaders the recipients of our mens's club scholarships. Good luck to the incoming executive board and board of directors for next year. If everyone is moving forward together than the success takes care of itself.....

Shalom,
Todd Levine

Sisterhood Salutations

My knowledge of Hebrew is sparse. It was unusual (although not unheard of) for girls of my generation to attend Hebrew school. I did, however, thanks to my father, attend Sunday School where I learned about Jewish history and Jewish holidays. Hebrew was taught, but it was not the focus of learning. I wish I had taken it upon myself, at that time, to practice and become better at reading Hebrew. However, I am grateful that, today, I can follow the service and participate. I still get tripped up on some of the letters that resemble each other, but I hope to take a course that will sharpen my reading skills.

During the years I attended Sunday School, vocabulary was another area of sparse learning. I did pick up a few words like boker tov, erev tov, todah and sheket yeladim, to name a few. I thought shalom meant hello, goodbye and peace. Recently, I discovered that there is no word for goodbye in Hebrew. The word that comes closest to the English goodbye is the Hebrew word l'hitraot. This is based on the Hebrew word that means "to see". So, l'hitraot literally means "till we see each other again".

This is my final article in the TNT bulletin as Sisterhood president and I would like to take this opportunity to tell you how grateful I am to have been in this position for the past two years (recycled from over 30 years ago). It has been a privilege and pleasure to have taken this journey with such a wonderful group of volunteers. Our board members take on challenges of serving not only our Temple community, but also the community at large.

We are fortunate to be a multi generational group. I am convinced that we compliment one another. Our next president, Elisa Zimmerman, is the first of the 2nd generation to share the title of president. I know that her mother, Judy Leventhal (of blessed memory), would be so proud to see Elisa follow in her footsteps.

Using my sparse knowledge of Hebrew vocabulary, I would like to wish a hearty

Mazel Tov to Elisa and her incoming board,
Todah Rabah to my board these past two years,
Boker Tov or Erev Tov depending on when you are reading this,
Shalom to all of you,
And as I leave office, this is not goodbye.....

L'hitraot, till we see each other again,

Harriet Feinstein, President

From: Morah Laura

The TNT Religious School year concluded on a festive note on Sunday morning, May 15 as the entire school community, grades K-10/Confirmation, gathered in the social hall to begin a dual celebration. The tempting aroma of falafel floated through the synagogue as Kitah Vav (6th grade) teacher, Talya Paul, prepared delicious Israeli food and set up a festive room decked out in blue and white with the help of parent volunteers Linda Gross, Alyssa Landau, Judy Kemp and Alyse Barbash; the students of Kitah Vav; and Temple Administrator Beth Hoffman. In a celebration of Yom Ha'Atzma'ut, Israel Independence Day, students, parents and teachers enjoyed a sampling of hummus, falafel, Israeli salad, pita and oranges before joining in singing Israeli songs led by your education director, Morah Laura Berkson, and Mrs. Paul. Mrs. Paul's helped to round out the celebration with her joyful energy and talent by leading everyone in a series of Israeli dances.

The school community then moved to the sanctuary for a special year-end service and ceremony. Students of Kitah Bet (2nd grade) led everyone in a special service, and the students were honored for their achievements in learning to read Hebrew. Each student received a personalized copy of Siddur Sim Shalom and the Kitah Bet ceremony concluded with a special Shehecheyanu blessing as the children's parents and some grandparents stood proudly around them, holding a large tallit over the heads of their children as the blessing was sung.

Each student in grades K-6 received a Certificate of Completion and a JNF Tzedakah box as their accomplishments in their religious school studies were noted and they were promoted to the next level of study for the coming year. Certificates of Appreciation were awarded to teenagers Amy Sokolow, Gabriel Landau, Mindy Freedman and Rachel Gershlak for their service as volunteers in our Sunday school classrooms during this year. And in keeping with the Jewish tradition of honoring our teachers, each of the religious school faculty --- Sue Savy, Debra Reisman, Yael Sokolow, Beverly Shuman, Ronda Spitzer, Talya Paul and Andrea Katz --- were also recognized for their service to the synagogue, the school, and for providing a vibrant year of educational programming to our children. It is extremely important to extend a very special thank you as well to Beth Hoffman and to Linda Gross for their unflinching support, time and devotion to our religious school.

With the help of members of the Confirmation class, the ceremony concluded with Havdalah, the singing of Hatikvah, and a benediction, T'filat Haderech, the Traveler's Prayer, in a setting by songwriter Debbie Friedman z"l. And why Havdalah? We do the ritual of Havdalah as a mark of separation, distinction, and also as a bridge between the holiness of Shabbat and the "ordinary" week, and between the end of festivals and the "ordinary" days of the year. Just as we mark those times with Havdalah, the school ceremony served as a ritual to bridge this year's study of our sacred texts and holy traditions with the beginning of our summer recess. And just as Havdalah gives us a glimpse and a taste of the specialness of the Shabbat that we look forward to as we begin our week, I hope that it gave our school community a reminder of the vibrant and memorable experiences that are yet to unfold in the new school year next fall.

May the summer be filled with adventure and rest, that we may bring to our school renewed energy in the year to come.

Laura Berkson
Education Director

Confirmation and Kitah Zayin Graduation

On Tuesday, June 7 at 8:00pm, all are invited to join in our observance of the Festival of Shavuot with leadership from some of our students. The students of Kitah Zayin (grade 7) will mark the completion of one phase of their religious school experience while advancing into the Temple Ner Tamid Confirmation program. On this same evening, our three Confirmands, Lindsay Barbash, Jonathan Band and Rachel Gershlak will participate in the service as they complete our Confirmation program. As we observe Shavuot, commemorating the giving of Torah on Mt. Sinai and the transmission of Torah, of learning, from generation to generation throughout the ages, we join in wishing mazal tov to all the families of our 7th and 10th graders who are reaching these Jewish educational milestones.

questions: call Janice Wyner 978-535-5254

About the PMC:

The Pan-Mass Challenge is an annual bike-a-thon and a pioneer of the athletic fundraising industry that today raises more money for charity than any other single event in the country. The organization was founded in 1980 and has since raised $303 million for cancer research and treatment at Dana-Farber Cancer Institute through its Jimmy Fund.

The PMC donates 100 percent of every rider-raised dollar directly to the cause.

The Ride:

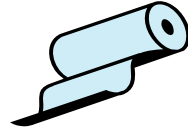

The Pan-Massachusetts Challenge is a fully supported bike-a-thon — with food and water stops, mechanical and medical assistance, luggage transportation, and lodging — that runs through 46 towns across Massachusetts. Approximately 5,000 cyclists ride in the event. Cyclists choose from 11 routes of varying mileage designed to cater to all levels of cycling strength and time availability. There are six two-day routes that range from 153 to 190 miles and five one-day rides that range from 25 to 110 miles. In 2011, cyclists are required to raise between $500 and $4,200 to ride in the PMC, depending on the chosen route.

When:

The 32nd annual PMC will be held on August 6 and 7, 2011. The ride has two starting lines on Saturday, Aug. 6, in Sturbridge and in Wellesley, and five finish lines in Provincetown (2), Bourne, Wellesley or Sharon on either Saturday, Aug. 6 or Sunday, Aug. 7.
