NOVEMBER IS JEWISH BOOK MONTH
SISTERHOOD OF TNT

presents author – Jennifer Rosner reviewing her book

“IF A TREE FALLS”

Wednesday, November 17, 2010
7:45 p.m.

*Sisterhood members – free;
All others (men & women) – donation appreciated*

Jennifer Rosner’s revelatory memoir explores family, silence, and what it means to be heard. When her daughters are born deaf, Rosner is stunned. Then she discovers a hidden history of deafness in her family, going back generations to the Jewish enclaves of Eastern Europe. Traveling back in time, she imagines her silent relatives, who showed surprising creativity in dealing with a world that preferred to ignore them. She, then, shares her journey into the modern world of deafness and her controversial decisions she and her husband have made.

“This book is the kind of memoir that reminds the reader how we are all part of the same long line: complicated selves finding our way in a world that challenges us to discover our deeper resilience and untold strengths.” –Vicki Forman, author of “This Lovely Life”.

Jennifer Rosner has a Ph.D in Philosophy from Stanford University and her writing appeared in Good Housekeeping, The Jewish Daily Forward, The Massachusetts Review, and more.

Books may be purchased at a discount (added bonus - no tax)
for $13.00 payable to TNT
*They will be available ahead of time at the Temple office as well as the night of the book review.

TEMPLE NER TAMID'S ADULT EDUCATION
PRESENTS A

MINI MOVIE SERIES

Sunday, November 21, 2010 at 7:45 p.m.
“MAKING TROUBLE”

This film presents six great Jewish female comic entertainers of the last century –Molly Picon, Fanny Brice, Sophie Tucker, Joan Rivers, Gilda Radner & Wendy Wasserstein. It is hosted by four of today’s funniest women – Judy Gold, Jackie Hoffman, Cory Kahaney & Jessica Kirson

Monday, December 20, 2010 at 7:45 p.m.(note date change)
“PRAYING WITH LIOR”

This film is engrossing, wrenching and tender. Lior has Down syndrome and spent his life praying. Depending on which family member is speaking, he is a burden, best friend, inspiration, and embarrassment. As he approaches Bar Mitzvah, the characters provide a window into life with Lior. This is a family story, a triumph story, a grief story, and a divinely inspired story.

Films approximately 1 ½ hours followed by refreshments & discussion.
Your check made out to TNT is your reservation.
Mail to TNT, 368 Lowell Street, Peabody, MA 01960
$2.00 per film or $5.00 for the series.

Contact Harriet Feinstein if you have any questions.

Spend an Afternoon with W.A.G.

Join the North Shore's Jewish Widows and Widowers Activity Group as we enjoy dinner and a theatrical production at the Amesbury Playhouse.

In "Don't Dress for Dinner" an evening of hilarious confusion ensues as Bernard and Robert improvise at breakneck speed. Hurting along at the speed of light, this breathtaking farce is a faultless piece of theatrical invention!

Dinner entrées include sliced roast beef, baked haddock, or baked stuffed chicken. Please select the one you prefer when making your reservation.

- What is the date? Sunday, November 21st
- Where do we meet? We'll all gather at Temple Ner Tamid in Peabody at 10:30 AM. Theatre doors open at 11:30. Please let us know if you'll need a ride when making your reservation so we can plan accordingly. We strongly recommend that you make your own driving arrangements, since only limited car pools will be available. As a token of appreciation to our drivers, we ask that each passenger contribute $1.00 for the ride.
- What is the cost? Tickets will cost $36.00; this includes a full course dinner and the show.
- Whom do I call? Contact Sylvia Loman at 978-535-5211 to make a reservation.
Send a check, payable to W.A.G., to:
Arlene Titelbaum, 13 Forenza Road, Peabody, MA 01960

YOUR CHECK, CONFIRMING YOUR RESERVATION, MUST BE RECEIVED BY NOVEMBER 7th.

HOLLYWOOD HITS PREMIERE THEATRES

October 28 & November 1 & 9, 2010

ALL FILMS SPONSORED BY: The Benjamin Olanoff Community Endowment Fund of the Jewish Community Foundation of the North Shore/Jewish Federation of the North Shore.

I MISS YOU

Te Extraño

October 28, 7:00PM

EAST COAST PREMIERE

Director: Fabián Hofman Min.: 96 Minutes
Year: 2010 Country: Mexico, Argentina, Uruguay
Language: Spanish Format: Fiction

Director Fabián Hofman's moving, semi-autobiographical story depicts one Jewish family caught in Argentina's military dictatorship during the 1970s. When teenaged Adrian "disappears," his parents send his younger brother Javier to live in safety with an aunt and uncle in Mexico. Everyone misses Adrian – even his old friends, who have somehow managed to land in Mexico City too. In this sensitively drawn coming-of-age story, Javier decides that going home is the only way to rebuild his fractured family's future.

THE LONERS

HaBodedim

November 1, 7:00PM

NEW ENGLAND PREMIERE

Director: Renen Schorr Country: Israel
Year: 2009 Min.: 92 Minutes
Language: Hebrew, Russian Format: Fiction

Two Israeli soldiers, immigrants from Russia without local ties, are accused of treason in Renen Schorr's tense narrative, inspired by events in Northern Israel in 1997. Non-actors Sasha Agrounov (Glory) and Anton Ostrovsky (Sasha) give gripping performances as they portray a conflicted friendship; Agrounov won Best Actor at the Ophir (Israel Film Academy) awards. The Loners evokes the high-energy atmosphere of Dog Day Afternoon and marks Schorr's return to directing more than 20 years after his smash hit, Late Summer Blues (Blues Lahofesh Hagadol).

MAYA

November 9, 7:00PM

NEW ENGLAND PREMIERE

Director: Michal Bat-Adam Min.: 89 Minutes
Year: 2010 Country: Israel
Language: Hebrew Format: Fiction

Renowned Israeli actress and director Michal Bat-Adam's latest release features a play within a movie. When a young actress wins the lead role in a new play by a well-known director, she wrestles with his suggestion that she spend time at a local mental hospital to understand her role as a traumatized young woman. Simultaneously, she thinks about accepting the director's advances. Maya's deepened knowledge of her character changes herself, the play, and the power play between actress and director.
